2012 Summer Program

Come wander quietly and listen to the wind.
Come here and listen to the sky.
Come walking high above
the rolling of the sea
And watch the swallows as they fly.

There is a secret in the
murmur of their wings.
There is a choir in their song.
There is a power in the freedom of their flight
When the swallows soar along.

Currently enrolling Nursery and Kindergarten classes for Fall 2012

Teepees & Drums

AGES 3-7 YEARS*

Each week, we will explore a different aspect of the wonderful cultures of Native American tribes. Through building, gardening, circle games, cooking, and more, we will get to know these earliest Americans. A flowing, gentle rhythm, responsive to the openness of the summer will guide the children through the day. We will spend time outdoors and indoors. A mid-morning snack will be provided and the day will end with lunch and story. Please provide lunch, including water, for your child in an insulated lunch bag with an ice pack. Please apply sunscreen and bug repellent to your children at home and bring a sunhat.

Instructors

This Summer Program will be led by Jessica Khoshabo and Carrie Riley. Both are Waldorf Early Childhood teachers either at the Apple Blossom School or HVWS. The program will offer the children a true-to-form Waldorf experience: nourishing their physical development and striving for truth, beauty and goodness in the class environment.

*Open to children turning 3 by December.
